- The Complaints manager will decide on the appropriate person(s) to carry out subsequent steps, including the investigation.

Risk 2 – Urgent, serious business impact.

This requires a response to the customer within 5-10 working days.

- Serious complaints are complaints logged on media platforms, received from legal advisors or immediately evidence contravention of legislation requirements such as failure to conduct a proper needs analysis.
- These complaints from the outset may cause reputational harm to a financial services provider and/or may cause financial loss to a customer.
- These complaints should ideally be handled by the Complaints Manager/Key Individual or suitable senior person delegated to the task by the Complaints Manager/Key Individual.
- Complaints from third parties and/or legal advisors will be responded to within 24 hours, acknowledging receipt of the complaint and further requesting authority to act on the complainants behalf such as a power of attorney or consent by the complainant to deal with the complaint on the complainant's behalf.

The regulator usually stipulates a response time of 30 days from receipt of the complaint.

- Official complaints should be handled by the Complaints Manager/Key Individual.
- The investigation of the complaint may be delegated to a suitable senior person selected by the complaint manager and the required draft response and attachments may be collated by such senior person.
- The Complaints Manager will be ultimately responsible for compiling the response to the regulator.
- The response to the Regulator should be made within the stipulated turn-around time.

3.4.2 Categorisation

- Complaints will be categorised according to whether it's nature, e.g. service, product related, features, performance, advice given etc.

 - TCF Outcome 4 – These are complaints which relate to the advice given (if advice was given) to a customer by an advisor which was misleading, inappropriate and/or tainted with conflicts of interest which was not disclosed. Inappropriate advice given as a result of lack of knowledge, skill or experience on the part of the advisor of the product or service being rendered, would also be included here. The failure to conduct a needs analysis and to consider the customer's financial position, goals or life stage would also amount to a contravention of suitable advice requirements and any complaint in association herewith would fall into this category.
 - TCF Outcome 5 – Complaints in this category pertain to product performance and service related issues. This would include complaints relating to customer's disappointment with limitations in a product or service performance of which they were unaware as well as the inability of a product to meet a customer's expectations. Complaints related to a product supplier's exercise of a right to terminate a product or amend its terms, would also be included in this category.
 - TCF Outcome 6 – These complaints relate to product accessibility or changes, complaints relating to complaints handling and complaints relating to claims would be categorised here.
